Annual safety review

Inspectors visited every depot between March and June. Most sites met the standard on the first visit, but four depots needed a second inspection because fire exits were blocked or extinguishers were out of date. All four have since passed. The full list of findings, with dates and the name of each inspector, is in the appendix at the end of this report.

Fictional sample generated for pdfplumber.dev (CC0).